

2021-1-RO01-KA220-VET-000032984

CE-E VET Circular economy and entrepreneurship to boost VET students' employability and resilience

Post-test for the microlesson

Questions	Yes	No
Now I know what Recycling means.
Will you collect the garbage in your home separately?
Do you know the items that can now be recycled?
Will you contribute to placing recycling bins where you live?
Will you have your old or broken items repaired?
Do you now know how to evaluate your electronic items that have lost their function?
Now, I see energy saving as necessary for a sustainable environment.
I will throw used batteries into waste battery collection boxes.
I will be careful about my water consumption when using the sink and toilet.
I will minimize my use of paper towels and try to protect the environment.

When I leave the environment, I am in, I will not leave my garbage in the environment and throw it in the trash can.
I will throw plastic, metal and paper into the recycling bins designated for these.
Do you think that recycling waste is important for protecting natural resources?
Do you think that young people should have good environmental awareness for a sustainable environment?
I think choosing public transportation is important for a sustainable environment.
Do you think recycling has an effect on preventing environmental pollution?		