

2021-1-RO01-KA220-VET-000032984

CE-E VET Circular economy and entrepreneurship to boost VET students' employability and resilience

Pre-test for the microlesson

Questions	Yes	No
I know what Recycling means.
Do you collect the garbage in your home separately?
Do you know the items that can be recycled?
Are there recycling bins where you live?
Do you repair your old or broken items?
Do you know how to reuse your electronic items that have lost their function?
To avoid unnecessary energy use, I leave lights and electronic devices on only when I need them.
I think energy saving is necessary for a sustainable environment.
When I leave the environment, I am in, I check if there is anyone in the room and turn off the lights.
I throw used batteries into waste battery collection boxes.

I pay attention to my water consumption when using the sink and toilet
I use paper towels to a minimum and try to protect the environment.
When I leave the environment, I am in, I do not leave my garbage in the environment and throw it in the trash can.
I throw plastic, metal and paper into the recycling bins designated for these.
Do you think recycling waste is important for protecting natural resources?
Do you think that young people should have good environmental awareness for a sustainable environment?
I think choosing public transportation is important for a sustainable environment.
Are the efforts made to protect our environment and nature sufficient?
Does recycling have an effect on preventing environmental pollution?
Do you think that our school has adequate practices regarding recycling and the environment?		